JAXON

BEER GARDEN

DALLAS, TEXAS

The revolutionary design of this stunning restaurant embodies all of Texas' southern charm and culture. With the assistance of reclaimed materials and objects, this design offers a unconventional approach to the way that not only Dallas, but Texas is showcased to the world.

JAXON

BEER GARDEN

The detail-oriented high top features a wood slatted canopy that is stained to perfection and beer taps with handles that are repurposed deer antlers which speak to the way nature is involved in the Texas culture and adds to it's rustic charm. All while having a gorgeous backdrop of the custom lone-star state mural with an LED sign.

JAXON

BEER GARDEN

A curated dining space offers flexibility when customers either have an intimate date or are entertaining several guests for important moments, but not before they're welcomed with warmth at the front door!

THOMPSON

BUCKHEAD

ATLANTA, GEORGIA

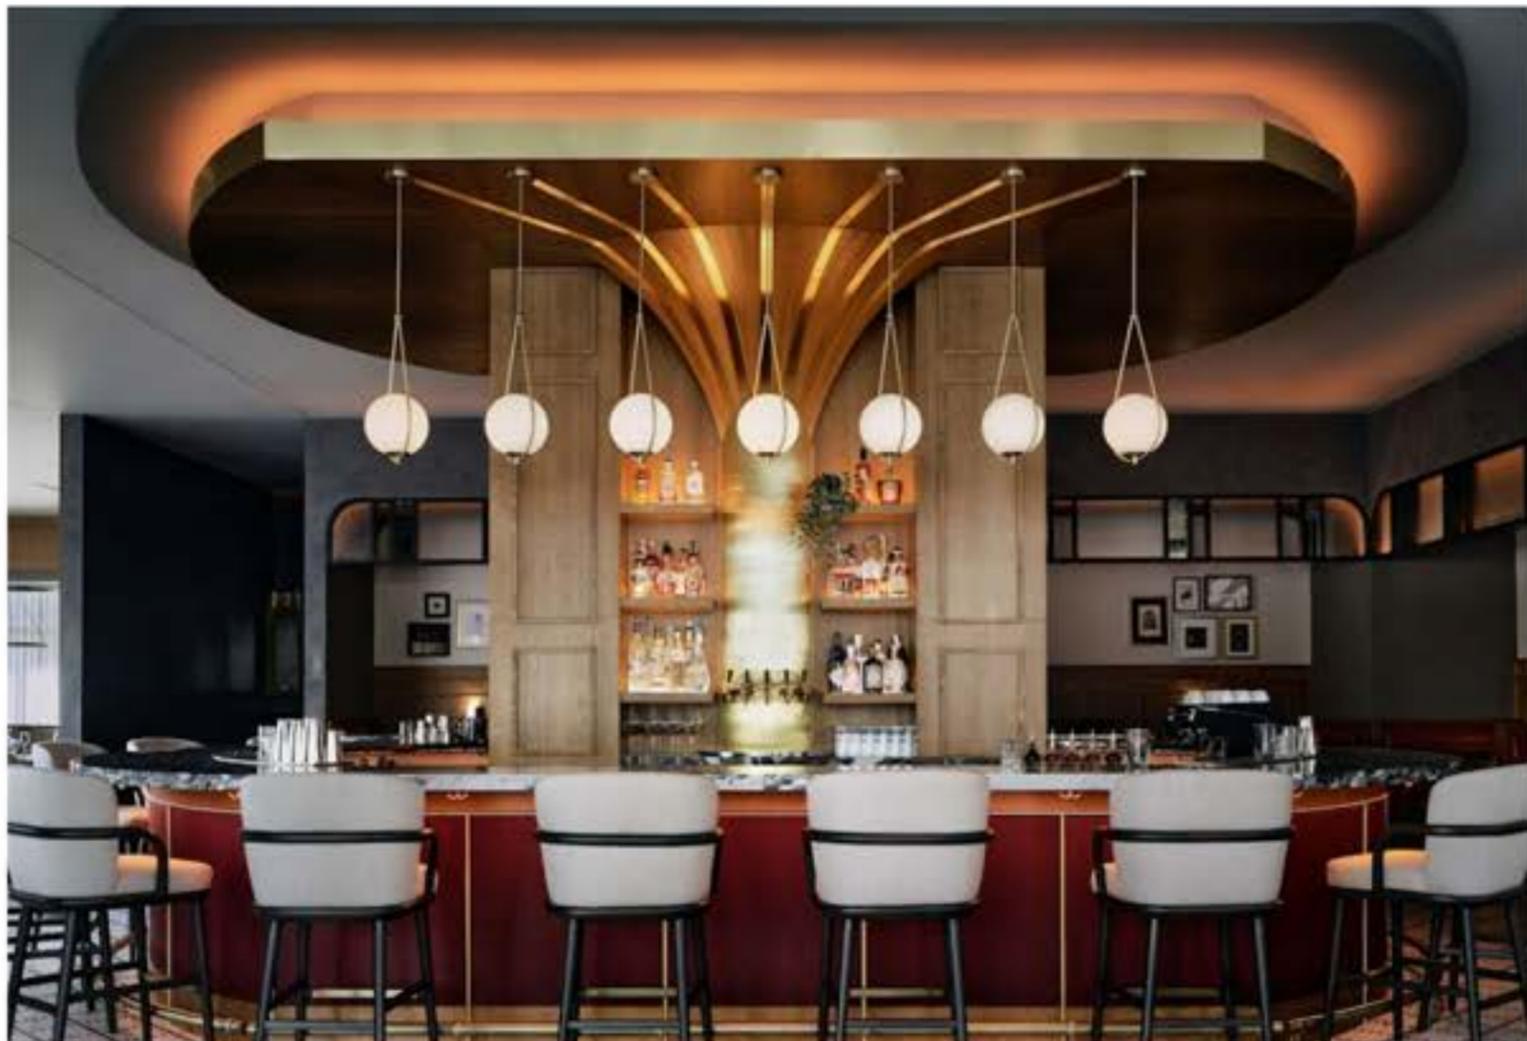

In a stunning new-build hotel that overlooks the Atlanta skyline, Thompson buckhead provides a luxurious mid century modern experience in each guest room and common area that amplifies a stay for every guest.

With the use of eccentric silhouettes, opulent textures and color schemes, the space is simply: out of this world.

THE REINVENTION

LOS ANGELES, CA

A long loved family home begins it's new lease on life by becoming a short-term rental property that will continue to be loved by others. This modernized Tudor-revival is designed to be uplifting and sophisticated to all who stay here while providing a upscale adventure with smart-home features.

THE REINVENTION

By creating an addition of 5' deep and the width of the kitchen, the space is transformed into the perfect entertainer's kitchen. The space has also been made open concept by removing the walls between the breakfast nook and the kitchen.

THE REINVENTION

This powder room presents a bold and impactful design that your friends and family will always remember. The ridged marble back splash wall paired with the surrounding wallpaper and materials, show that every space in the home was attended to in the design

THE ESCAPE

LOS FELIZ, CA

This lovely updated family home was updated once more to provide a sense of oasis to the master bedroom with minimalistic interior styling that has utilized the space in a way that mimicked a complete transformation.

THE ESCAPE

THE PRESERVATION

LOS ANGELES, CA

This historic home was renovated with intentions of being respectful to the home's original character. While keeping many original elements was the goal, this home has been so miraculously renovated and updated that you would barely believe that it was the same home.

THE PRESERVATION

A masterfully curated living room that features all of the original hardwood trim, flooring and beams has been upgraded with a stunning custom L-shaped velvet sectional to fit all of your closest friends. However, this room really comes together with the matching grasscloth wallpaper and the vintage area rug to enclose and complete the space.
